

Personal/Recreational Education

The Center for Professional Development and Continuing Education Program also offers short-term, non-credit offerings to meet the challenging needs of the community and help individuals fulfill personal goals. Offerings may include, but are not limited to, digital photography, culinary, youth exploration camps, and computer literacy.