

Professional/Continuing Education

The Center for Professional Development supports Coastal Alabama's education and service missions and offers study opportunities to the community by extending the resources of the College to the region. Offerings include a broad range of subjects in professional development, including continuing education units (CEUs) in accounting, nursing, electricity, etc. In addition, the Center also offers non-credit programs, such as Certified Nursing Assistant. Continuing Education offerings carry CEU credit only.